

BRIAN CARTER'S ETHICAL CHARTER
AS FIRST AUSTRALIAN PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION

Bargain the cowards to the basement and the peaceful dreamers to the palace.
Let my palace be my shirt and my shoes.

Carry my shoulders with you always.
Let my words feed you.
Let my smile bring you flowers.
Let my freedom be you.

Tell me what to do
and I will share with you
my shirt and my shoes.

Let my silence answer your questions.
Let my journey invite you to help others.

Let the strength of all our skills raise as to the level of eternity.

Give only of yourself,
when you have found your own shadow,
then give forever to all of us.

Tell me about your challenge and let it be mine.
Carry on the will of all.

Transplant your best endeavours for others.
Everyone, ensure the earth is not left behind,
but prospers with you.

Heal its wounds and the earth
will raise its greatest crop;
finest forests;
most fertile seas;
and will bathe us all in its precious waters.

Let all creatures never be alone again
For we are all together now,
as one.

Take the bread.
Let the crust be the soul of our nation, the world.
Let the colour of the bread be universal.
Carry the warmth of the loaf to all people,
to all nations.

I will bring you the bread and the corn,
the wine and the grape,
in the shade of the gum tree.

We will never let a soul be without.
Grant us all the right to believe in me
and the world that gives me strength.
The unknown that gives me fire.

Purpose as a dreamer will bring all dignity.
Let the air of the wind and inventor carry the message and the trees mould us together.
Bequest all of these with faith in my peaceful, caring beliefs.
I will not move beyond understanding.
Encourage yourself with me
the joy of responsibility.

I am above no one.
I share all our wisdom.

My honesty will ride on the shoulders of myself and all our children.

My loyalty is to all.
